ENLISTMENTS WANTED IN MOTOR TRANSPORT CORPS

Perhaps the one branch of service in the United States army that the layman knows very little about is the motor transport corps, which is now enlisting recruits. In France this service is called the "M. T. C." and it belongs among the credit of the success of the American army. The Motor Transport Corps, however, is not confined to work on the other side, and every day there are hundreds of its members about the big cities, for the big army motor trucks and passenger automobiles which hurry through the streets on military business are all a part of the "M. T. C." and the drivers are members of this corps. The enlistment period is either for one year or three years for ex-soldiers and three years for civilians. The pay ranges from $30 to $105 monthly with all expenses paid. The nearest recruiting stations are at 35 State street, New London and 450 Asylum street, Hartford.

DR. JAMES M. MURPHY PROMOTED TO CAPTAINCY

Announcement has just been made that Dr. James M. Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Murphy, 220 Central avenue, has been promoted to a captaincy. This will be gratifying news to his many friends in Norwich, although the promotion was not entirely unexpected, as he had been recommended for a captain's commission some time ago, but the appointment was delayed because of his youth.

Capt. Murphy is a native of Norwich, a graduate of the Norwich Free Academy and of Tufts Medical school, Boston. Immediately following the entrance of the United States into the war, he enlisted at Boston, and entered the service as a lieutenant. Dr. Murphy trained at Camp Greenleaf, Ga., and was sent overseas in the fall of 1917. His assignments included a number of hospital camps in France and he was in charge of several. At the present time he is in charge of a hospital camp in Talmont, France, one of the best equipped hospitals established by the American Expeditionary Forces.

Like all other American soldiers abroad, Capt. Murphy would like to return home, now that the fighting is over, but indications are that his camp will be one of the last to be abandoned by the American forces.

Guilford.—That Guilford is never pound lacking in patriotism was again proved, when the nationwide Victory Liberty loan drive closed with the old town over the top by over $8,000, her quota being $33,700 and her subscriptions $192,000.

NORWICH CLUB'S ANNUAL IN NEW YORK

(Special to The Bulletin.) The Norwich society of New York held their annual dinner at the University club, 54th street and Fifth avenue, New York, Tuesday evening, May 13th. Following is the list of members present:

Howard C. Russ, Arthur P. McWilliams, F. LeRoy Stearns, James W. Farrell, Hugh F. McLaughlin, Edgar L. Messenger, William Huber, S. W. Bishop, Francis Gilman, P. N. Bidwell, Henry D. Arnold, W. P. Bridgen, E. H. P. Bridgen, Dr. J. H. Storer, Frank L. Cole, W. C. Huntington, H. W. Kellogg, Anthony B. Arnold, O. C. Johnson, Charles Osgood, Charles F. Noyes, George H. Hyde, W. T. McNamara, P. M. Johnson, A. S. Bard, E. E. Perry, Dr. A. McConnell, Gilbert D. Lamb, W. M. Potter, E. W. McGuire, W. H. Lamb, B. Klein, Fremont D. Palmer, Edw. C. Ely. George H. Hyde, president, opened the meeting by reading an extract that was published in one of the New York papers about Norwich, the Rose of New England, its charm, its people, and sketching the former life of the old New England town. It spoke of many of its former citizens who were illustrious in the history of bygone days. The election of officers then followed with this result: President, Edward C. Ely; vice president, Albert S. Bard; treasurer, Howard C. Russ; secretary, Arthur P. McWilliams; executive committee, Gilbert H. Lamb, Walter A. Post, Charles F. Noyes, Reginald Reynolds, Dr. Charles Osgood. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were presented and accepted.

President Ely then took the chair and a discussion took place about giving $100 this coming year to some worthy Norwich object. It was voted to give $100 to such organization or person who did the most for Norwich. This is to be decided by a committee composed of the mayor, the principal of the N. F. A., the president of the United Workers and the president of the Board of Trade. It was also voted to appoint the secretary, Dr. John H. Storer, Dr. Charles Osgood and Charles F. Noyes a committee to obtain donations from the members of the Norwich society for an X-ray machine for the Backus hospital. President Ely then introduced the speaker of the evening, Frank Cole, who has been in the U. S. secret service in Siberia. Mr. Cole gave a very interesting talk on the country at large, speaking of its vastness, its costumes and people. His work brought him into close touch with the Bolshevik situation and he stated that the only good Bolshevik was the dead one. He spoke of the excellent work of the Chelovack in cleaning up the Trans-Siberian railroad and stated that they now controlled 5,000 miles of railroads. He also stated that there was very little of the Bolshevik spirit in Siberia. He spoke of the wonderful opportunities open to commerce and hoped and trusted that the manufacturers of the United States would take advantage and get their share of the business. Because of his work as a United States secret service agent, Mr. Cole was in a good position to get hold of the facts. Mr. Cole has only recently returned from Siberia and the Norwich society was fortunate to be one of the first ones to have him address them. After Mr. Cole completed his talk some of the Norwich society members asked him several questions and in reply to one he said he was confident the czar had not been executed. He also stated that the people in Russia would follow the strongest leader and that they had a great reverence for the former czar. The president then called on Lieut. LeRoy Stearns and asked the lieutenant to give the Norwich society a talk on his work in France. Lieutenant Stearns gave an interesting talk about his experiences with the 102d engineers and also paid a very flattering tribute to the city of France on reconstruction work. How ever, he has decided to remain in this country. The society voted to hold a ladies' night on the 27th division has taken up his work with the American Bridge company, which has made him very flattering offer to return to France on reconstruction work. However, he has decided to remain in this country. ## ON TRIAL FOR ASSAULT WITH PIECE OF PIPE

The trial of Alex Sedio of Groton was continued on Wednesday before the criminal superior court at New London on the charge of assault with intent to murder Andrew Remawicz, a laborer, with a piece of heavy iron pipe at a barn house of the National Engineering Co. in Groton on the night of February 15, striking him on the head, inflicting a deep scalp wound and breaking his right arm. Sedio was bound over from the town court of Groton. It is alleged that the assault was the result of a row over a rap game involving six cents. Sedio was shooting crap with a fellow laborer whose first name was Aleck and who has since left these parts. The two men got into a fight and the laborer picked up a piece of heavy iron pipe, which the latter used using nearby. When the latter resisted and refused to give him the knife, Sedio is alleged to have gone out and secured a heavy piece of pipe, with which he assaulted Remawicz.

The first witness called to the stand was Burton Bellamy, a negro and one of the laborers living in the same bunk house with Sedio and Remawicz. He said that he was in the house when the fight started and saw all he told of the beginning of the fight, over the rap game, and of Sedio's assault on Remawicz. Dr. Charles G. Barnum of Groton told of attending Remawicz and of taking several stitches in a wound on his scalp and setting a fracture of the right arm. He said that both of the injuries might have been caused by a blunt instrument similar to the piece of pipe exhibited as the weapon with which Sedio is alleged to have struck Remawicz.

Sedio testified in his own defense, admitting the assault but claiming it was in self defense. The accused admitted getting into a row with a negro whose first name was Aleck over a rap game, and when he went to a table nearby to pick up a case knife, Remawicz, who was standing nearby, and Aleck pounced upon him and beat him. He managed to get away and went out to get an officer. When he came a few minutes later he was met at the door by Remawicz, armed with the piece of pipe, who assaulted him. He took the piece of pipe away from him and in self defense struck him. The evidence was all in and the arguments had been made by the two sides and the case was adjourned Wednesday afternoon. Judge Case will make his charge to the jury and then place the case in their hands when court comes in this (Thursday) morning.

MAYOR ISSUES CALL FOR PROFITABLE PATRIOTISM

Reinvestment of Second Liberty loan bond interest in thrift or war savings stamps is urged upon the citizens of Norwich by Mayor J. J. Desmond. The government will make a semi-annual interest payment on the Second Liberty loan, May 15th, at which time a vast amount of money will be turned over to investors in the First Federal Reserve District.

"Many of our citizens own Second Liberty Loan Bonds," the mayor said. "The treasury department has urged that all who can take this interest money and reinvest it in war savings stamps. By this means, they can turn their interest into more interest. It is profitable patriotism and I trust that the citizens of Norwich will do as the treasury department has requested."

"Arrangements have been made so you can exchange your Second Liberty interest coupons for thrift or war savings stamps at the post office. Our postmaster has a sufficient supply of these government securities on hand to exchange for your coupons and will be pleased to accommodate you. War savings stamps are always cashable at the post office on ten days' written notice. I appeal to all patriotic citizens of

Norwich Auto in Collision.

At 10.30 this morning an automobile owned and driven by Mrs. Burton of Norwich collided with a car owned and driven by Albert Frink of this city, at the corner of State and Main streets. The collision came about when Mrs. Burton, who was driving down Main street misjudged the signal of Traffic Patrolman Grady to stop, for the signal to advance. Consequently her car ran into the Frink car which was going down State street, after receiving the order to advance from Officer Grady. The Frink car has a badly damaged left forward mudguard and the running board on the left side of the car was damaged considerably. Mrs. Burton offered to settle for the damages, but Mr. Frink expressed the opinion that they were not severe enough to require such action. New London Day.

Gas and Electrical Department

Announcing the establishment of a New Business Department organized to sell Gas Stoves, Water Heaters, Industrial Furnaces and Gas Burning Appliances of all kinds, we take the opportunity to present our aims and policy to our customers, present and prospective.

During the war we were handicapped in almost every conceivable way in rendering service to our own satisfaction. But now with the remodeling of our gas plant almost completed we are prepared to serve our present customers and the many new ones whom we are confident of soon having, to our mutual satisfaction and advantage.

We feel that the many advantages of gas as a fuel have not been advertised sufficiently before the people of Norwich. We feel that it is to our mutual advantage that this department now present to its public the superiorities which have established the Gas Industry as the fifth largest manufacturing industry in America. This we will do through the local newspaper and our new business solicitor, Mr. C. W. Flagg.

It will be our aim to improve and maintain in every possible way the service rendered each customer. It will also be our aim to present in a fair, unprejudiced manner to possible customers the advantages of gas in each particular case, which representation will gain for us hundreds of new users and give to each new customer the many benefits of using gas. With the achievement of these aims and a consequent continuance of the good will of our customers upon which our success is largely dependent, we hope a reduction in our gas rate will be warranted before long.

The Fact is—

Over half the truck Tonnage of America is carried on Firestone TIRES

THERE are good reasons for Firestone Truck Tires carrying more than half America's truck tonnage.

Look at the trucks in this city that are mounted on Firestone Tires.

You'll find that they run faster, have fewer accidents, stand up better with less repairs, are operating with the lowest possible quantity of gasoline.

Our own service here in the city co-operates with Firestone policy. Our tire presses, with power equal to many tons pressure, and our other machinery make it easy for us to change truck tires quickly.

And you know that the paying truck is the truck in the streets hauling your goods. When a truck's laid up a day for tire change, you lose far more than the cost of the change. Let us reduce tire-change time to the fewest possible minutes.
